

Customized Southern European Mesh Cable Tray Manufacturer

AI Overview

Leading Southern European manufacturers of mesh cable trays include Spina Group (Italy) and Legrand/Cablofil (France), offering high-quality wire mesh and stainless steel solutions compliant with European standards.

Key Manufacturers

Spina Group (Italy) Schiavetti Tekno, part of Spina Group, is a prominent Italian manufacturer specializing in cable trays and accessories for industrial and instrumentation systems. They offer a wide range of products including wire-mesh, ladder, perforated, and closed-bottom trays made from stainless steel or galvanised materials. Their systems are designed for strength, corrosion resistance, and long-term performance, suitable for energy, infrastructure, and plant engineering projects. Custom sizes and compatibility with Unistrut systems are available, and all products comply with EN and UL standards. Spina Group also provides technical support and after-sales assistance for industrial installations (Spina Group) . Legrand / Cablofil (France) Legrand's Cablofil brand is a leading French manufacturer of wire mesh cable trays, known for their ease of installation, adaptability, and durability. Their mesh trays are widely used in commercial, industrial, and IT environments, offering solutions that meet EN 61537 and ISO 9001 standards. Cablofil focuses on sustainable, long-lasting products suitable for complex infrastructure projects, including energy and transportation sectors (Apex Tray) . Additional European Options While not exclusively Southern European, companies like DKC Europe provide a comprehensive range of cable tray systems across Europe, including mes...
