

Direct Sales from Austrian Network Cabinet Manufacturer

AI Overview

Several Austrian manufacturers, including Schrack Technik, RHG GmbH, BT-Anlagenbau, JEAN MÜLLER, and Energie- und Telecom Netze GmbH, offer direct sales of network and electrical cabinets with customization and technical support.

Key Austrian Manufacturers Offering Direct Sales

Schrack Technik Group – Headquartered in Vienna, Schrack Technik specializes in power and data distribution, including network cabinets and control enclosures. Unlike many competitors, Schrack does not distribute through wholesalers but relies on its own sales force and seven regional offices in Austria, enabling direct customer engagement, technical consulting, and rapid fulfillment of local requests. They provide a full range of products from control cabinets to data networking solutions, with a focus on high-quality, cost-effective solutions. RHG GmbH – Located in St. Valentin, RHG manufactures customized switchgear and network cabinets in-house. They offer direct consultation, planning, and commissioning services, including legal inspections, mechanical processing, and maintenance. Customers can order cabinets tailored to their specifications, ensuring compliance with relevant standards. BT-Anlagenbau – This company provides contract manufacturing of low-voltage switchgear and network cabinets, including one-off and series production. They emphasize precision manufacturing, full documentation, and testing, allowing direct orders for custom solutions. JEAN MÜLLER – Offers a wide range of enclosures and distribution boards, available empty or fully equipped, with individual consulting for direct customer orders. Their products comply with DIN standards and are suitable f...
