

Fengjie Optical Cable Sales Company

AI Overview

Fengjie Optical Cable is a Chinese fiber optic cable manufacturer offering a range of telecom and data communication solutions, with capabilities comparable to leading Chinese producers.

Company Profile and Capabilities

Fengjie Optical Cable specializes in fiber optic cables for indoor, outdoor, aerial, and underground applications, including FTTH drop cables, ADSS, OPGW, and duct/conduit cables. Like other top Chinese manufacturers, the company likely adheres to international standards such as ITU-T G.652, IEC 60794, and Telcordia GR-20, ensuring compatibility with global telecom networks and high-quality performance. The manufacturer typically provides customized solutions, including multi-core designs (up to 576 fibers), armored or non-armored options, and tailored cable jackets for environmental protection against moisture, rodents, and UV exposure. Production processes often include automated fiber drawing, quality control with defect rates below 0.5%, and rapid prototyping for client-specific designs.

Certifications and Quality Assurance

Leading Chinese optical cable manufacturers, including Fengjie's peers, maintain certifications such as ISO9001, ISO14001, ISO45001, TL9000, and ISO28000, reflecting robust quality management, environmental compliance, and occupational safety standards. These certifications ensure that cables meet high tensile strength, low attenuation (0.16–0.2 dB/km), and long-term reliability for telecom and data ce...
