

Free consultation on Fiji electrical distribution boxes

AI Overview

You can access free consultations on electrical distribution boxes in Fiji through licensed contractors and Energy Fiji Limited guidance.

Energy Fiji Limited (EFL) Guidance

For any new electrical installation, including distribution boxes, Energy Fiji Limited (EFL) requires a completed application or contract form submitted by a licensed electrical contractor prior to inspection and connection. These forms provide guidance on installation requirements, safety standards, and eligibility for government subsidies for households or businesses. You can download the necessary forms directly from the EFL website to initiate consultation or inspection requests .

Licensed Electrical Contractors

Several licensed electrical contractors in Fiji offer consultations, assessments, and installation services for distribution boxes:
