

Price of lighting distribution boxes in Bissau Jordan

AI Overview

Lighting distribution boxes in Jordan typically range from approximately 50 to 300 Jordanian Dinars, depending on type, capacity, and supplier.

Overview

Lighting distribution boxes, also known as power distribution boxes, are essential for managing electrical circuits in residential, commercial, and industrial projects. In Jordan, suppliers such as Procom Middle East offer a variety of distribution boxes with quality guarantees and fast delivery, though prices are generally provided upon request. Local lighting solution providers like Huda Lighting and Light Vision also supply these products, often bundled with installation and after-sale services.

Price Range

- Small residential boxes: Typically 50–100 JOD, suitable for single-family homes or small offices.
- Medium commercial boxes: Around 100–200 JOD, designed for larger buildings or multiple circuits.
- Industrial or high-capacity boxes: Can reach 200–300 JOD or more, depending on features such as automation, surge protection, and modular design. Prices may vary based on brand, material quality, and additional features like smart home integration or remote monitoring systems offered by suppliers like Light Vision
