

Rainproof Outdoor Distribution Box Manufacturer

AI Overview

Reliable manufacturers of outdoor rainproof distribution boxes include SinoBreaker, CNKCELE, Minyang, Ouyue, and ZCEBOX, offering IP65–IP68 rated enclosures in plastic or stainless steel for global supply.

Key Manufacturers and Offerings

1. SinoBreaker SinoBreaker provides plastic waterproof distribution boxes with IP65–IP68 ratings, suitable for outdoor and industrial use. Their product lines include the AT Series for compact installations and the HT Series for larger internal space and DIN rail configurations. These enclosures are UV-stabilized, dustproof, and water-resistant, with options for pre-assembled kits, custom drilling, and volume orders, making them ideal for rooftops, gardens, and coastal installations . 2. CNKCELE CNKCELE specializes in outdoor rainproof distribution boxes and other electrical enclosures. They emphasize high-quality, affordable solutions with national accreditation standards and export globally to Europe, America, Australia, and the Middle East. They offer custom quotations based on detailed specifications and support bulk orders . 3. Minyang Minyang manufactures stainless steel outdoor rainproof distribution boxes with IP65 or higher protection. These boxes are rainproof, dustproof, anti-corrosion, and often include lightning and leakage protection. They are suitable for municipal projects, parks, parking lots, docks, and other outdoor environments. Minyang supports OEM/ODM customization, sample orders, and flexible lead times of 7–21 days depending on quantity . 4. Ouyue (Zhejiang Ou Yue Electrical Co., Ltd.) Ouyue focuses on metal distribution boxes, particularly stainless...
