

Recommended Finnish Mesh Cable Tray Manufacturers

AI Overview

Meka Pro Oy and Aiscan are leading Finnish manufacturers of high-quality wire mesh cable trays, with Jeetmull Jaichandlall also recognized as a top supplier in Finland.

Meka Pro Oy

Meka Pro Oy is a Finnish company headquartered in Oulu, Finland, specializing in cable management systems including wire mesh trays, steel cable ladders, cable trays, lighting tracks, and trunkings. Their products are designed for quality, strength, ease of installation, and long life cycle, making them a key supplier in Scandinavia and the Baltic countries, with strong representation across Northern and Central Europe. Meka Pro emphasizes high-quality manufacturing and product development, ensuring reliable solutions for industrial and commercial projects.

Aiscan

Aiscan is another prominent Finnish manufacturer, established in 1977, known for its wire mesh cable trays. Their products are engineered to support and organize cables efficiently, meeting high safety and functionality standards. Aiscan trays are suitable for industrial and commercial applications, offering versatility and durability. They are available through distributors like GroupSumi, which provides a range of trays and installation accessories.
